

Institutions of Higher Education: Policy Documents

Curriculum

The school must have a clearly defined process by which the curriculum is established, reviewed and evaluated. Evaluation of school effectiveness must be completed on a regular basis and must include, but is not limited to: An explanation of how each program is consistent with the mission of the school. An explanation of the written process for evaluating each program and an explanation of the procedures to assess how well educational goals are achieved. Documented use of the results of these evaluations to improve the degree and certificate programs offered by the school.

Internship, externship, or production work policy document (if applicable)

A document that accurately describes a compliant policy applicable to programs that require an internship, externship, or production work. The policy must adhere to 8VAC-40-31-160(M).
